

Subject: Grade 5 Natural Sciences

Topic: Animal types

Total: 34 Marks

Name: _____

Date: _____

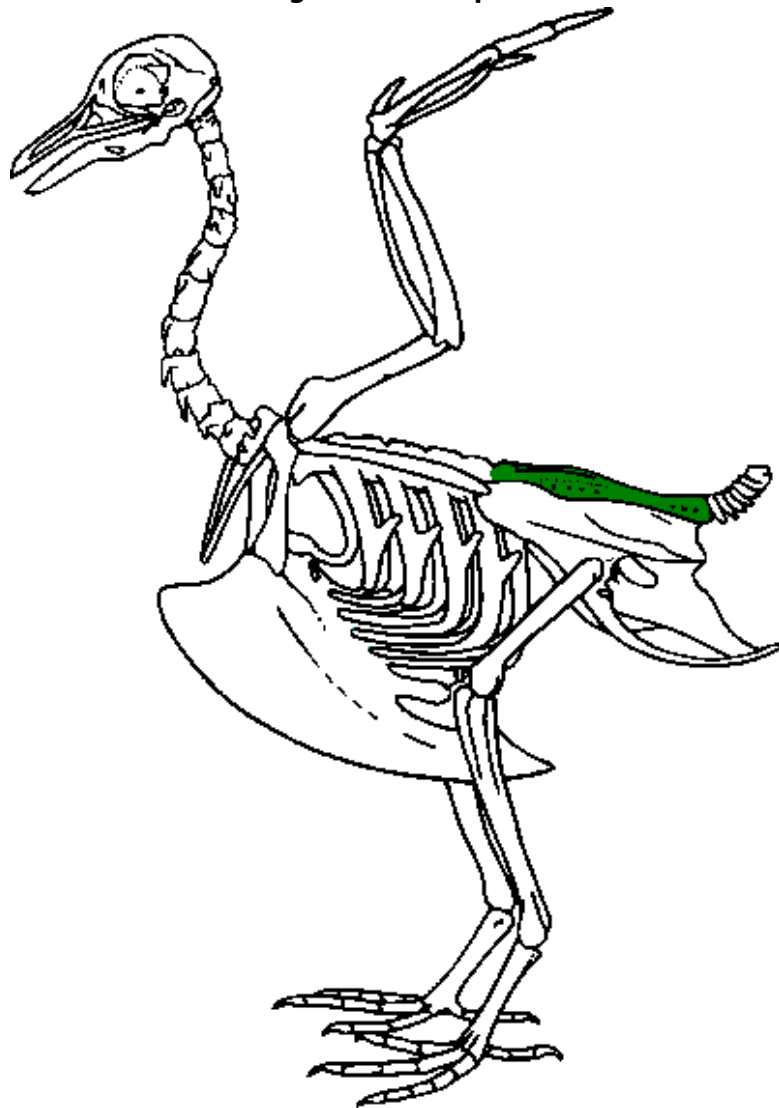

Question 1: Multiple Choice

4 marks

Which of the following is NOT a vertebrate?

- | | |
|----------|--------------|
| A | a mammal |
| B | an amphibian |
| C | an insect |
| D | a snake |
-

This image refers to question: 2

Question 2: Multiple Choice

4 marks

A bird has an

- | | |
|----------|---|
| A | endoskeleton that protects the internal parts of the bird |
| B | endoskeleton that does not grow |
| C | endoskeleton that supports the muscles and organs of the bird |
| D | exoskeleton made up of feathers |

Question 3: Multiple Choice

4 marks

Which of the following animals has an exoskeleton?

- | | |
|----------|-----------|
| A | cockroach |
| B | snoek |
| C | hawk |
| D | frog |
-

Question 4: Multiple Choice

4 marks

Which of the following animals has an exoskeleton?

- | | |
|----------|-----------|
| A | a sparrow |
| B | a cricket |
| C | a dog |
| D | a tadpole |
-

Question 5: True/False

2 marks

The endoskeleton of an animal protects it from water.

- | | |
|-------------|--------------|
| TRUE | FALSE |
|-------------|--------------|
-

Question 6: True/False

2 marks

The exoskeleton of invertebrates is always hard.

- | | |
|-------------|--------------|
| TRUE | FALSE |
|-------------|--------------|
-

Question 7: Text Input

3 marks

All vertebrates have a backbone. The backbone is made of small bones called

Question 8: Text Input

3 marks

The substance that cushions bones at the joints is called

This image refers to question: 9

Question 9: Please Fill In The Blanks

6 marks

A spider has an exoskeleton that (1) grow. This means the spider needs to (2) , which is the process whereby the (3) is replaced by a new one.

Possible Answers: can | cannot | moult | metamorphise | endoskeleton | exoskeleton

1
3

2
----------	--

Question 10: True/False

2 marks

All animals have bones.

TRUE

FALSE

Total: 34 Marks