

Look closely at this picture and answer the questions below in full sentences.

1. Who is doing something in the picture that could be dangerous and what is he doing?

Kevin is doing something dangerous, riding his skateboard on the pavement.

2. For whom could this be dangerous? This could be dangerous for him and other people around him.

3. Can you spot someone doing something wrong in this picture? Who is it and what are they doing wrong? Clare is throwing paper onto the ground, littering.

4. Other than postcards, what else do you think is sold at City News?

They could also sell newspapers and magazines.

5. What two things suggest to you that it is a reasonably warm day?
There are people swimming and most people are not wearing jackets or jerseys.
6. Why is it safe for the lady with the pram to cross the street.
The robot or traffic light overhead is red, stopping traffic so she can cross safely.
7. How is Kevin protected from hurting himself?
He has a helmet and arm and knee protective gear on.
8. Who do you think Kevin could be racing against?
He could be racing against the yellow taxi.
9. Do you think the swimming pool area is safe for small children?
Give a reason for your answer. No, I do not, because the fence is low enough for children to climb over and possibly drown.
10. What do Adela and John have in common? They both enjoy music. Adela is playing guitar and John is listening to his music through his headphones.

Can you draw a busy street scene of your own in the box below? Remember to include as many interesting characters as you can.

