

'What Is a Suffix?' Poem

I'm a little word but I do my bit

I go to the back and there I sit

I tag a few letters at the end of words

I make help become helpless, how absurd

Paint becomes painting, catlike comes from cat

Spoon changes to spoonful, now that's a fact

I make loud become loudly and that's not all

Small becomes smaller and taller comes from tall

Suffixes are easy, when you know how

I'm really quite important and so I'll take a bow!
