

Write Sentences in the Past and Future Continuous Tense.

Write Sentences in the Past and Future Continuous Tense.

EXAMPLE: We /discuss/important problems/ at 2 o'clock last (next) week.

Past Continuous Tense: We were discussing important problems at 2 o'clock last week.

Future Continuous Tense: We will be discussing important problems at 2 o'clock next week.

1. I /read /a book/ at ten o'clock yesterday (tomorrow).
2. You/drink/tea/at seven o'clock yesterday (tomorrow).
3. (?)Ben/listen/to the radio/at this time yesterday (tomorrow).
4. Children/play/the whole day yesterday (tomorrow).
5. He/write/a letter at 2:00 yesterday (tomorrow).
6. They/play/chess at this time yesterday (tomorrow).
7. (?) She/cook/dinner at 5 o'clock yesterday (tomorrow).
8. Children/do/their homework at 4 o'clock yesterday (tomorrow).
9. My parents/paint/a picture at nine o'clock yesterday (tomorrow).

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate verb form.(tense)

1. Millions of American soldiers overseas in World War II. (fight)
2. Turn the water off or the bathtub (overflow / will overflow / would overflow)
3. The speaker with emotion. (overpowered / was overpowered / has overpowered)
4. The room with harmful fumes. (filled / was filled / have filled)
5. Whether life on other planets is a moot question. (exist / exists / existed)
6. He never his vegies and his meat together. (mix)
7. The general of mistreating prisoners. (accuse)
8. Did you the margarine for butter? (mistake)
9. A damp breeze from the sea usually rain. (mean)