

1. Create your own Wonder picture. Use only black pen and include only a few facial features. E.g

2. Now create a precept (a rule for your own life) and write it beneath your picture. Explain what it means. Post it somewhere in your room to remind you.

Precepts are:
"Rules about really important things"
"Words to live by."
"Can help guide you in making a decision."

3. As a family, tape an affirmation sheet on your backs and take turns writing why each of you "is a wonder". Then remove it and read what everyone has written. E.g
