

1. 'A pair of star-crossed lovers' means
  - (a) lovers who are always angry and arguing with each other.
  - (b) a couple whose love is destined by fate to be disastrous.
  - (c) a boy who double-crosses his girlfriend.

2. 'She hath Dian's wit' is said of
  - (a) Juliet.
  - (b) the nurse.
  - (c) Roseline.

3. When Romeo says 'I fear too early' in response to Benvolio urging them on to the Capulet feast as it was growing late, he means
  - (a) they shouldn't go at all.
  - (b) the beginning of any party is slow, so he wants to wait until it is in full swing.
  - (c) if they arrive too soon they will be recognised.

4. 'The gray-eyed morn smiles on the frowning night' contains examples of
  - (a) pun
  - (b) personification
  - (c) irony

5. The main themes of Romeo and Juliet are:
  - (a) Greed, Love and Courage.
  - (b) Love, Hate and Death.
  - (c) Greed, Death and Hate.

6. Romeo refuses to be upset by Tybalt's insults because
  - (a) he was afraid to fight him.
  - (b) they are now relatives.
  - (c) Juliet told him that he must stop fighting.

7. Romeo is sad and moody at the beginning of the play because
  - (a) Juliet won't accept his advances.
  - (b) he is a victim of unrequited love.
  - (c) he loves the daughter of his enemy.

8. The real meaning of 'Wherefore art thou Romeo?' is:
  - (a) Where is my loved one hiding?
  - (b) Will you not come forward and claim me?
  - (c) Why are you a member of the hated Montague family?